

Venues:

How to get to Venue 1:
Room 2R-EG-07, Institute for Eastern European History, Spitalgasse 2, Campus of the University of Vienna, Hof 3.2., 1090 Vienna

How to get to Venue 2:
AK Bildungszentrum, Theresianumgasse 16-18, 1040 Vienna.

Organizers:

Stefan Berger, Institute for Social Movements,
Ruhr-Universität Bochum

Ulf Brunnbauer, Leibniz Institute for East and Southeast
European Studies, Regensburg

Philipp Ther, Research Centre for the History of Transformations and East Central Europe, University of Vienna

Contact:

Irena Remestwenski, managing director, RECET, irena.remestwenski@univie.ac.at.

In cooperation with:

Arbeiterkammer Wien
Institut für historische Sozialforschung (IHSF)

Sponsors:

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Wed 31.5.2023 –
Fri 02.6.2023 Vienna

Deindustrialization and Reindustrialization Re-Connected

Comparing Developments in the Global South and the Global North from the 1970s to the Present Day

<https://www.recet.at/event-news/events/detail/deindustrialization-and-reindustrialization-re-connected>

Impressum: Research Center for the History of Transformations, Spitalgasse 2/Hof 1.1, 1090 Wien, recet.at

Wednesday /// 31.05.2023

Venue: Room 2R-EG-07, Institute for Eastern European History, Spitalgasse 2, Campus of the University of Vienna, Hof 3.2.

17:00-17:30 Welcome & Opening

17:30

KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

Prof. Joanna Wawrzyniak (University of Warsaw)
Memory Perspectives on Industrial Transformation(s) in Eastern Europe

Prof. Lachlan MacKinnon (Cape Breton University)
Rethinking the Periphery: Deindustrialization in the Global North and South

19:30 Conference dinner

Thursday /// 01.06.2023

Venue: AK Bildungszentrum, Theresianumgasse 16-18, 1040 Vienna.

09:00-12:00

PANEL I: Political Economy & Legitimation

Alyssa May Kuchinski (Duke University)
The Fantus Company's Influence on German and Japanese Auto Manufacturing Plants

Prof. Vera Scepanovic (Leiden University) &
Prof. Dr. Imre Szabó (Central European University)
The Roots and Costs of Reindustrialization - Lessons from the Visegrad Countries

10:20-10:40 Coffee break

Dr. Naveen Chander (University of Göttingen)
Divergent trajectories: A Study of Industrial restructuring in North-India (1980s-2000s)

Dr. Thuc Linh Nguyen Vu (RECET, University of Vienna)
Framing Industrialization and Deindustrialization: The Long Đổi Mới in the Vietnamese Press

12:00 Lunch

13:30-16:00

PANEL II: Workers' Experiences

Dr. Agata Zysiak (RECET, University of Vienna)
Stories of Deindustrialization. Workers Narratives about Rupture, Adjustment, Continuity in Lodz and Detroit

Francesco Caiazzo (University of Florence)
Women and Steel Factories. How Deindustrialisation Began (Italy - France)

14:40-15:00 Brief break

Rubén Vega (University of Oviedo) &
Adj. Prof. Dr. Juliana Frassa (National University of La Plata/ National University Arturo Jauretche, Argentine)
Deindustrialization, Worker Resistance and Work Culture in the Shipbuilding Industry. A Comparative Analysis of Two Shipyards in Argentina and Spain

Dr. Esperanza Rock Núñez (University of Chile) &
Dr. Irene Díaz Martínez (University of Oviedo)
Cultural Representations in Lota-Chile and Asturias-Spain. Indigenism and Workerism in Post-Industrial Contexts

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-18:00

PANEL III: Revisiting the North-South Paradigm

Dr. Max Trecker (GWZO Leipzig)
A Tale of Two Industries? The Intricate Relationship of the Soviet and Indian Steel Industry

Dr. Indranil Chakroborty (Concordia University)
Beyond the National: The role of the Indian Steel Companies in reindustrializing the Global North

Eliot Perrin (Concordia University)
Mining New Depths: Social Precarity Amidst a Mining Boom in Sudbury, Ontario

Friday /// 02.06.2023

Venue: AK Bildungszentrum, Theresianumgasse 16-18, 1040 Vienna.

09:00-10:20

Panel IV: Global and Regional Comparisons

Dr. Stefan Hördler (University of Göttingen)
Deindustrialization, transformation, and transnational impact of the steel crisis in West Germany and the USA in the 1980s

Nicolas Arendt (University of Luxembourg/University of Vienna)
Between Extinction in Luxembourg and Resurrection in China. The History of the Three Belval Blast Furnaces after the Transformation of the Steel Site in the 1990s

Dr. Anna Calori (RECET, University of Vienna)
The Steady Stream? De-Industrialization and Reindustrialization in the Petro-chemical Industry in Yugoslavia and Italy

10:20-10:40 Coffee break

10:40-12:00

PANEL V: Emotions of Industrial Transformation

Prof. Dr. Joey Ann Fink (Highpoint University)
Warrior Jesus, the Christian Soldier, and the Working Man: Evangelical Christianity in the Industrialized Regions of the United States and Canada since the 1970s

Dr. Nora Mariella Küttel (University of Halle)
Loss in Transformation: Labor, Place, and Identity in East German Shipyards

Özge Kelekçi (Middle East Technical University) & Meral Akbaş (Middle East Technical University)
Searching "Here but Lost" Memories in an Emp-tied Landscape of a Factory in Turkey

12:00-13:30 Lunch

13:30-14:30

PANEL VI: Emotions of Industrial Transformation (continuation)

Boris Komakhidze (Ivane Javakishvili Tbilisi State University)
Visibility of the Deindustrialized City Landmark: Post-Socialist Transformation of the Liepaja's Metallurgical Factory

Prof. Tao Chen (Tong-Ji University)
Foreign experts, Local protests, and Industrial Progress: Building Rolling Mills in Wuhan Steel Factory, 1973-1981

14:30-15:00 Coffee break

15:00-16:30

KEYNOTE PRESENTATION

Prof. Dr. Doris Fischer (University of Würzburg)
Dual circulation, decoupling and dual use: Chinese policies' impact on Europe's de- and reindustrialization